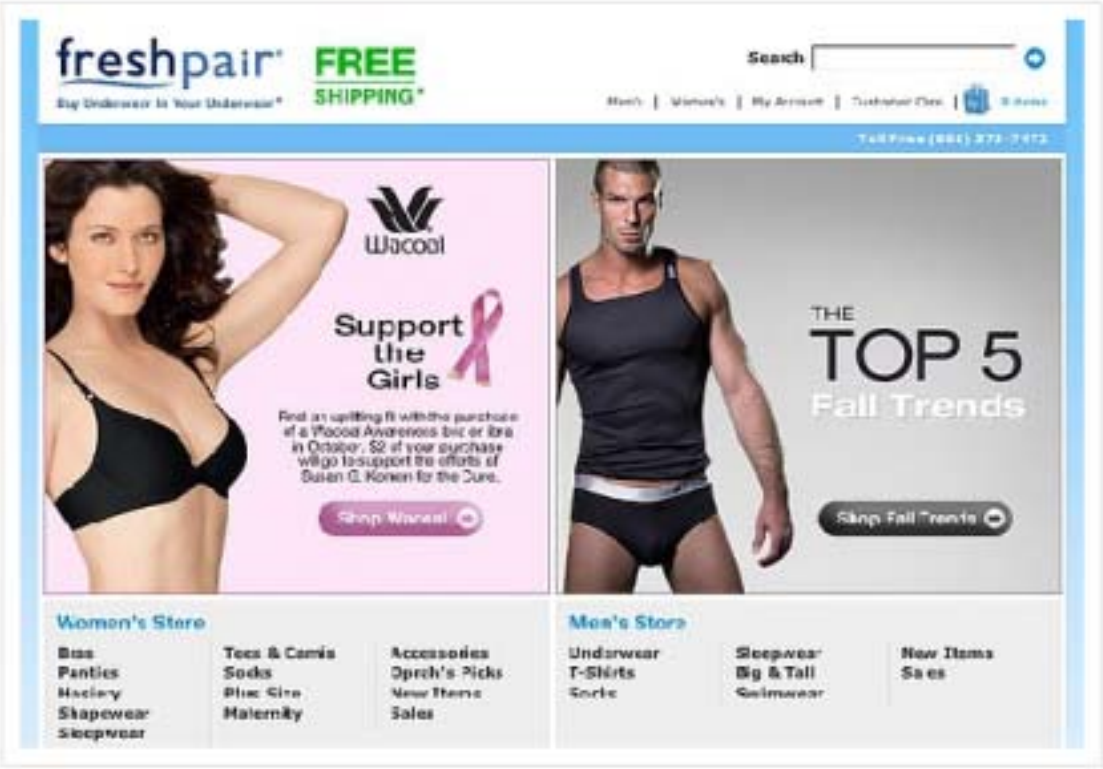
Fab Site: FreshPair.com

MON, 10/15/2007 - 2:00AM BY FABSUGAR


Everyone wears underwear (well, except for Britney Spears) so almost everyone can use this site. FreshPair.com lets you shop for underwear while in your underwear, touchÃ©. Along with usual bras and panties, it carries hosiery, sleepwear, shapewear, tees & camis, socks and more. It also has a men's store for the lad in your life. If you're an Oprah fanatic, shop her picks here. October isn't over yet, so there's still time to support breast cancer. And if you have some free time, check out their underwear blog. Fun stuff!
