

Seasonal Spice!

The Underwear King is back. We got a lot of great feedback on our first underwear column and I'm glad everyone is starting to get stocked up on their favorite basics. Given that the holidays are just around the corner, this is the perfect time to add a couple of choice items to your collection. I think that when you get dressed up on the outside, you should get dressed up underneath, too. The hottest thing you can wear under your festive outfit this season is color. Look to C-IN2 , 2\(x\)ist, GinCh Gonch, and Calvin Klein for holiday options in bold color.

Need further direction? How about checking out a couple of my personal favorites? Each of the smaller images to the right links to one of the styles I'll be sure to add to my collection this year -- in the spirit of holiday cheer!
